Dorsaneo, Texas Litigation Guide

Publication 719

Release 128

March 2018

HIGHLIGHTS

Attorney's Fees

- As a matter of law, attorney's fees may not be recovered against an LLC under Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 38.001. See Ch. 22.

Continuing Tort Doctrine

- The Texas Supreme Court has refined the discussion of the continuing tort doctrine, which extends the accrual date for continuing torts until the defendant's wrongful conduct ceases. See Ch. 72.

Scope of Discovery

- The Texas Supreme Court has held that a request to produce all of an opposing party's attorney billing records invades that party's work-product privilege. See Ch. 90.

This release updates Texas Litigation Guide with recent Texas Supreme Court and court of appeals decisions and federal cases. Many of the significant developments in this release are summarized below.

DORSANEO, TEXAS LITIGATION GUIDE (USPS 018-383) is published quarterly for $4,125 by Matthew Bender & Co., Inc. 3 Lear Jet Lane Suite 102 PO Box 1710, Latham, NY 12110. Periodical postage is paid at Albany, N.Y. and at additional mailing offices. POSTMASTER: Send address changes to DORSANEO, TEXAS LITIGATION GUIDE, 136 Carlin Rd., Conklin, N.Y. 13748-1531.

Pretrial, Trial, Appellate Practice

Statutory Interpretation. This release includes Elite Auto Body LLC v. Autocraft Bodywerks, Inc., 520 S.W.3d 191, 202 (Tex. App.—Austin 2017, pet. filed), in which the court of appeals noted that courts may not judicially amend a statute by adding words that are not contained in the statute's language, but instead must apply the statute as written. See Ch. 4, Statutory Construction, § 4.01A[1].

Fair Notice Pleading Doctrine. In Reaves v. City of Corpus Christi, 518 S.W.3d 594, 600 (Tex. App.—Corpus Christi 2017, no pet. h.), the court of appeals held that under the fair notice doctrine, even the omission of an element of a cause of action is not fatal if the cause of action may be reasonably inferred from what is specifically stated. See Ch. 11, Plaintiff's Original Petition, § 11.201[3][f].

Waiver of Hearing on Sanctions Motion. Included is Akhtar v. Leawood HOA, Inc., 525 S.W.3d 814, 820 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2017, no pet. h.), in which the court of appeals held that whether or not a sanctions motion requires an evidentiary hearing, if a party does not object to the trial court's failure to conduct an evidentiary hearing, any error is waived. See Ch. 14, Sanctions for Improper Pleading, § 14.03[4][a].

No Recovery of Section 38.001 Attorney's Fees Against LLC as Matter of Law. In Vast Constr., LLC v. CTC Contrs., LLC, 526 S.W.3d 709, 728 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2017, no pet. h.), the court of appeals held that attorney's fees may not be recovered against a limited liability company under Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 38.001 because that statute applies only to individuals and corporations. See Ch. 22, Attorney's Fees, § 22.20[1][b].

Personal Jurisdiction Over Attorney Admitted in Texas Pro Hac Vice. In Nawracaj v. Genesys Software Sys., 524 S.W.3d 746, 754-755 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2017, no pet. h.), the court of appeals held that the defendant's pro hac vice admission to represent parties in Texas constituted purposeful availment in Texas and that Texas had an interest in ensuring that attorneys representing parties in Texas courts properly discharge their duties. See Ch. 32, Personal Jurisdiction and Service on Nonresidents, § 32.04[1][b], [2][a][i].

Posting Arbitration Policy on Intranet

Site Insufficient to Give Employee Notice. This release includes Doe v. Columbia N. Hills Hosp. Subsidiary, L.P., 521 S.W.3d 76, 81-83 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2017, pet. filed), in which the court of appeals held that under Texas employment law, a valid arbitration agreement exists if the employee received notice of the arbitration policy and accepted it. See Ch. 44, Arbitration, § 44.02[1][b].

Attorney's Fees in Declaratory Relief Action. In a declaratory relief action in which the trial court awarded attorney's fees, the court of appeals in Finserv Cas. Corp. v. Transamerica Life Ins. Co., 523 S.W.3d 129, 140 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2017, pet. denied) held that the trial court need not explicitly state in the judgment that the attorney's fees awarded were equitable and just. See Ch. 45, Declaratory Relief, § 45.06[1].

Application of Administrative Procedures Act. In LMV-AL Ventures, LLC v. Tex. Dep't of Aging & Disability Servs., 520 S.W.3d 113, 124 (Tex. App.—Austin 2017, pet. filed), the court held that the APA applies only to determining the "application" of an administrative rule, not its "applicability." See Ch. 421, Administrative Rules, § 421.05[2][e].

Statutes of Limitation. In Exxon Mobil Corp. v. Rincones, 520 S.W.3d 572, 591-592 (Tex. 2017), the Texas Supreme Court discussed the continuing tort doctrine, which extends the accrual date for continuing torts until the defendant's wrongful conduct ceases. See Ch. 72, Limitation of Actions, § 72.03[1][c].

Scope of Discovery. In Nat'l Lloyds Ins. Co., 60 Tex. Sup. J. 1165, 2017 Tex. LEXIS 522, at **13-20 (Tex. June 9, 2017), the Texas Supreme Court held that a request to produce all of an opposing party's attorney billing records invades that party's work-product privilege; additionally, this information is ordinarily not discoverable because it is not relevant. See Ch. 90, Discovery: Scope and Limitations, §§ 90.02[3][a], 90.06[1][c].

Electronic Discovery. In In re State Farm Lloyds, 520 S.W.3d 595, 599–601 (Tex. 2017), the Texas Supreme Court discussed a party's ability to request the format in which electronic information is to be produced, and set out standards for the trial court to apply when the court must decide whether production in the requested format is unduly burdensome. See Ch. 99, Electronic Discovery, § 99.20[2][b].

Summary Judgment. Ch. 101, Summary Judgment, has been revised and edited in light of current practice, and updated with revised forms.

Jury Charge. In United Scaffolding, Inc. v. Levine, 60 Tex. Sup. J. 1515, 2017 Tex. LEXIS 652, at *8 (Tex. June 30, 2017), the Texas Supreme Court reaffirmed its position that a premises defect case improperly submitted to the jury under only a general-negligence question, without the elements of premises liability as instructions or definitions, causes the rendition of an improper judgment. See Ch. 122, Jury Charge, §§ 122.05[3], 122.08[2].

Stare Decisis. In In re Reardon, 514 S.W.3d 919, 923 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2017, orig. proceeding), The Fort Worth Court of Appeals concluded that one court of appeals in Texas is not bound to follow precedent set by a sister court of appeals, although it may be guided by the reasoning and analysis of sister court opinions. See Ch. 35, Effects of Prior Adjudication, § 135.07[3].

Findings of Fact. In AD Villarai, LLC v. Chan Il Pak, 519 S.W.3d 132, 138 (Tex. 2017), the Texas Supreme Court discussed the procedure when a trial judge is replaced because of an election and fails to file properly requested findings of fact before leaving office: in this situation, the new judge has no authority to file the findings, but the former judge may still do so if the judge's term of office expired during the period prescribe for filing findings. See Ch. 141, Findings of Fact and Conclusions of Law, § 141.06[4].

Stay of Discovery. Abraham v. Greer, 509 S.W.3d 609 (Tex. App.—Amarillo 2016, pet. denied) held that the automatic stay of discovery on the filing of a TCPA motion to dismiss does not violate the plaintiff's constitutional rights to due process or the Open Courts provision of the Texas constitution. See Ch. 322, Professional Malpractice, § 333.42[2][b].

Business and Commercial Litigation

Lost Profits. In Horizon Health Corp. v. Acadia Healthcare Co., 520 S.W.3d 848 (Tex. 2017), the Texas Supreme Court provided guidance for a plaintiff seeking damages based on lost profits from future business opportunities. The plaintiff must present evidence establishing that prospective customers would have done business with the plaintiff absent the defendant's misconduct. See Ch. 21, Contracts Damages, § 21.11[3][b][i].

Piercing the Corporate Veil. The Texas Supreme Court addressed piercing the corporate veil in the regulatory context in the application of "tied house" (overlapping ownership among three tiers of the alcoholic beverage industry: manufacturing, wholesaling and retailing) in Tex. Alco. Bev. Code § 102.01 et. seq. The Court in Cadena Comercial USA Corp. v. Tex. Alcoholic Bev. Comm'n, 518 S.W.3d 318 (Tex. 2017) upheld the Texas Alcoholic Beverage Commission's denial of a retail permit to a retailer whose parent company held a 20-percent interest in a brewer. The Court specifically interpreted § 102.07(a)(1), which prohibits a person who owns or has an interest in a brewer from owning or having a direct or indirect interest in the business, premises, equipment, or fixtures of a retailer. See Ch. 165, Disregard of Corporate Entity, § 165.01[2][a].

Fraudulent Transfers and TUFTA. Ch. 165, Disregard of Corporate Entity, contains discussion of several versions of Husky Int'l Elecs. v. Ritz. First, the Supreme Court concluded in Husky Int'l Elecs., Inc. v. Ritz, 136 S. Ct. 1581 (2016) that “actual fraud” encompasses fraudulent conveyance schemes, even when those schemes do not involve a false representation. The Fifth Circuit then concluded that establishing that a transfer is fraudulent under the actual fraud prong of the Texas Uniform Fraudulent Transfer Act [Tex. Bus. & Com. Code § 24.005(a)(1)] is sufficient to satisfy the actual fraud requirement of veil-piercing [Tex. Bus. Com. Code § 21.223(b)], because a transfer that is made with the actual intent to hinder, delay, or defraud any creditor under TUFTA necessarily involves dishonesty of purpose or intent to deceive [Husky Int'l Elecs., Inc. v. Ritz (In re Ritz), 832 F.3d 560, 567-568 (5th Cir. [Tex.]2016)]. Thus, conduct that contains enough of the “badges of fraud” creates individual liability for corporate debt to a creditor under Texas’s veil-piercing statute [Husky Int'l Elecs., Inc. v. Ritz (In re Ritz), 567 B.R. 715 (Bankr. S.D. Tex. 2017)] (see § 165.02[1]).

Charging Orders. Ch. 183, Limited Liability Company, includes a case of first impression. The Fourteenth Court of Appeals in Gillet v. ZUPT, LLC, 523 S.W.3d 749 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2017, no pet. h.) held that a charging order is not the exclusive remedy when the judgment creditor is the LLC of which the judgment debtor owns a membership interest. The court stated two reasons why a turnover order was appropriate. First, the reasoning for preventing foreclosure of a member’s interest (to prevent a judgment creditor’s disruption of an entity’s business by forcing an execution sale of the partner’s or member’s entity interest to satisfy a debt of the individual partner or member) is inapposite when the judgment creditor seeking the membership interest is the entity from which the membership interest derives. Second, unlike a case in which a judgment creditor seeks to collect on its money judgment by forcing a sale of a membership interest, this case involves an explicit award of the membership interest itself from one party to the other as part of the judgment (see § 183.08).

Disparagement Clause of the Lanham Act Declared Unconstitutional. Ch. 200, Trademarks, contains the U.S. Supreme Court decision in Matal v. Tam, 137 S. Ct. 1744 (2017) which resolved whether the disparagement clause violates the Free Speech Clause of the First Amendment. In declaring that the clause was unconstitutional, the Court held that the content of the mark regulated by § 1052(a) is private, as opposed to government speech, thus requiring that the regulation must serve a substantial interest and be narrowly drawn in order to survive scrutiny First Amendment scrutiny (see § 200.20[3]).

Trade Secrets and Customer Lists. Customer lists are not protected trade secrets when evidence fails to meet the “independent economic value” and “reasonable steps to maintain secrecy” requirements under Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code Ann. § 134A.002(6) [Baxter & Assocs., L.L.C. v. D&D Elevators, Inc., 2017 Tex. App. LEXIS 1352 (Tex. App.—Dallas 2017, no pet. h.]). See Ch 200B, Trade Secrets, § 200B.03.

Material Contract Breach and Future Performance. A material contract breach excuses future performance, not past performance. In Bartush-Schnitzius Foods Co. v. Cimco Refrigeration, Inc., 518 S.W.3d 432 (Tex. 2017), the Texas Supreme Court addressed timing and materiality when both parties breach. If there is evidence to uphold a jury finding that the first breach was not material, the owner's failure to pay the balance owed for the service was not excused, and therefore a breach. See Ch. 210A, Contracts, § 210A.41[2][b].

Personal Injury Litigation

Substantial Factor in Injury. Bustamante ex rel. D.B. v. Ponte, 61 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 11 (Tex. 2017) held that when multiple medical providers or actors allegedly contribute to one injury, any particular defendant's act or omission need not be a sole cause, provided it is a substantial factor in bringing about the injury. See Ch. 321, Medical Malpractice, § 321.08.

Willful and Wanton Standard of Care. D.A. v. Tex. Health Presbyterian Hosp. of Denton, 514 S.W.3d 431 (Tex. App.—Fort Worth 2017, pet. filed) held that the willful and wanton standard of care under Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 74.153 for emergency treatment does not apply when the patient is first admitted to an obstetrical unit and the need for emergency care later arises. See Ch. 321, Medical Malpractice § 321.18[1].

Time to Appeal Computation. City of Magnolia 4A Econ. Dev. Corp. v. Smedley, 61 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 85 (Tex. 2017) (per curiam) held: (1) a government unit asserts a "plea to the jurisdiction" for purposes of interlocutory appeal under Tex. Civ. Prac. & Rem. Code § 51.014(a)(8) if its immunity defense is implicated, regardless of the particular procedural vehicle employed; and (2) when that defense is raised by successive procedural vehicles, the time to appeal is computed separately from the order disposing of each, unless the later vehicle is simply a request to reconsider the trial court's earlier decision. See Ch. 293, Claims Against Governmental Entities, § 293.13[4].

Evidence of Employment. Univ. of Tex. Health Sci. Ctr. v. Rios, 507 S.W.3d 312 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 2016, pet. granted) held that a government unit's filing of a motion to dismiss an individual and substitute the unit as the defendant under the election of remedies provision of the Tort Claims Act is evidence that the individual is an employee of the unit, but is not conclusive on the issue. See Ch. 293, Claims Against Governmental Entities, § 293.10[3][b].

Use of Vehicle. City of Socorro v. Hernandez, 508 S.W.3d 1 (Tex. App.—El Paso 2015, pet. denied) held that a police officer's activation of a patrol car's flashing lights is a "use" of the vehicle under the Tort Claims Act even if it is parked and not currently in operation. See Ch. 293, Claims Against Governmental Entities, § 293.10[4][c].

Intoxicated Driver. Ch. 302, Liability of Owners, has been revised to address recent cases from the Texas Supreme Court and courts of appeals, including Allways Auto Grp., Ltd. v. Walters, 61 Tex. Sup. Ct. J. 31 (Tex. 2017) (per curiam), which held that an auto accident that occurred 18 days after the defendant's entrustment was too attenuated from the driver's intoxication on the earlier date to constitute legal cause as a matter of law. See Ch. 302, Liability of Owners § 302.05[5].

Malicious Prosecution. Ch. 332, Malicious Prosecution and Abuse of Process, has been revised to include Gunville v. Gonzales, 508 S.W.3d 547 (Tex. App.—El Paso 2016, no pet.), which held that the key issue in applying the procurement element of a malicious prosecution claim is whether the false information caused the prosecutor to bring charges, and whether the grand jury relied on it in deciding to indict should not be considered. See Ch. 332, Malicious Prosecution and Abuse of Process, § 332.05.

Insurance Litigation

Waiver of Subrogation. Wausau Underwriters Ins. Co. v. Wedel, 518 S.W.3d 615 (Tex. App.—El Paso 2017, pet. filed) held that when a carrier has waived subrogation, that waiver not only bars direct recovery against the third party, but also precludes reimbursement from the injured employee of benefits paid or due from any judgment or settlement obtained by the employee in a third party action. Ch. 340, Workers' Compensation, § 340.41.

Real Estate Litigation

Reverse Mortgages. Ch. 255, Real Property Security Interests, has been revised to address recent cases from the Texas courts of appeals, including Washington Jarmon v. OneWest Bank, FSB, 513 S.W.3d 103 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2016, no pet.), which held that because a widow was not a “borrower” on a reverse mortgage, the lender established that all borrowers had died and it could foreclose to collect the balance due. See Ch. 255, Real Property Security Interests, § 255.06[6].

Short Term Rentals. Ch. 285, Restrictions, has been revised to address recent cases from the Texas courts of appeals, including Tarr v. Timberwood Park Owners Ass'n, 510 S.W.3d 725 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2016, pet. granted), which held that an owner violates a “residence” only restriction by leasing the property for short-term rentals. See Ch. 285, Restrictions, § 285.03[2][a].

Right of First Refusal. Tregellas v. Carl M. Archer Trust No. Three, 507 S.W.3d 423 (Tex. App.—Amarillo 2016, pet. filed) held that a claim for breach of a right of first refusal accrues when the property is sold or transferred in violation of the right, regardless of whether the right holder has notice of the violation, or the remedy sought for the violation. See Ch. 252, Real Estate Sales Contracts, § 252.01[2][d].

Statute of Frauds. Burrus v. Reyes, 516 S.W.3d 170 (Tex. App.—El Paso 2017, pet. denied) held: (1) it is not necessary to show that improvements made by a claimant increased the property’s market value to come within the partial performance exception to the Statute of Frauds; and (2) the “two or more transactions” threshold for enhanced liquidated damages under Tex. Prop. Code § 5.077 can be met by either enforceable or voidable executory contracts. See Ch. 252, Real Estate Sales Contracts, §§ 252.01[3][b], 252.02[3].

Security Deposits for Commercial Property. FP Stores, Inc. v. Tramontina US, Inc., 513 S.W.3d 684 (Tex. App.—Houston [1st Dist.] 2016, pet. denied), which applied Tex. Prop. Code § 93.011 as to security deposits for commercial property and held: (1) the cases applying the residential statute inform the interpretation of the commercial provision; and (2) the landlord may rebut any presumption of bad faith by presenting more than a scintilla of evidence that it acted with honest regard for the tenant’s rights. See Ch. 282, Landlord and Tenant, § 282.22[4].

Eviction Petition. Lenz v. Bank of Am., N.A., 510 S.W.3d 667 (Tex. App.—San Antonio 2016, pet. denied), and Rodriguez v. Midfirst Bank, 510 S.W.3d 635 (Tex. App.—El Paso 2016, pet. dismissed w.o.j.), each of which held that an attorney for a corporate landlord may swear to an eviction petition. See Ch. 282, Landlord and Tenant, §§ 282.41[4], 282.121[1].

Slander of Title. Ch. 257, Suit to Quiet Title, has been revised to address recent cases from the Texas courts of appeals, including Cnty. Inv., LP v. Royal West Inv., LLC, 513 S.W.3d 575 (Tex. App.—Houston [14th Dist.] 2016, pet. denied), which held that the filing of a notice of lis pendens is absolutely privileged and cannot form the basis of a claim for slander of title, even if the notice is filed maliciously and against property owned by a nonparty to the action. Ch. 257, Suit to Quiet Title, § 257.12[3].

Employment Litigation

Employment and Self-Defamation Theory of Recovery. Ch. 203, Employer-Employee Relations, adds Exxon Mobil Corp. v. Rincones, 520 S.W.3d 572 (Tex. 2017)]. As to the publication to a third-party element of a defamation claim, the Texas Supreme Court declined to recognize a self-defamation theory of recovery; namely, that a former employee is effectively compelled to publish a defamatory statement to prospective employers when asked why he or she left his former employment. The Court called the theory “incompatible with Texas’ at-will employment system” because it could enable any employee who disagrees with an employer’s reason for termination to unilaterally create an actionable tort against the employer (see § 203.06[1][f]).

Estates Code Litigation

Tortious Interference With Inheritance. In Kinsel v. Lindsey, 526 S.W.3d 411 (Tex. 2017) the Texas Supreme Court was asked to recognize tortious interference with an inheritance as a cause of action in Texas. The Court declined, noting “although some of our courts of appeals have recognized the tort, we have not. And because the [plaintiffs] have an adequate remedy in this case—a constructive trust imposed on the disputed inheritance—we are not persuaded to consider it here.” See Ch. 392, Admitting Wills to Probate, § 392.36[3][a][iii].

Family Law Proceedings

Child Support. The Texas Supreme Court has held that a trial court may consider direct payments either to the other parent or to a third party in deciding whether an arrearage exists, even if the original support order specifies a different manner of payment [Ochsner v. Ochsner, 517 S.W.3d 717, 722-725 (Tex. 2016)]. See Ch. 372, Enforcement of SAPCR Orders, § 372.04[2][a].
