

Juris Go® Release Notes Version 2023 R2

Juris Go 2023 R2 is here and has new features and enhancements based on general usability and your feedback.

Our goal is to remove the hassle of timekeeping by delivering incremental releases that ensure Juris Go is the best timekeeping and expense capturing tool for your firm. The enhancements in this latest release provide valuable information to billing staff, eliminate extra steps and match the way timekeepers and firm staff like to work.

NEW FEATURES

- Local Draft Email Notifications - To prepare for each billing cycle, billing staff can be notified of Juris Go users that have active Local Draft entries. This gives the billing staff the opportunity to communicate with specific Juris Go users and advise to submit time or expense entries that are needed for inclusion in the billing cycle. With this feature, billing staff can:
 - Send emails to specified users.
 - Set notifications at a desired schedule with the option to Run Now.
 - Generate email notifications that contain user email addresses for quick access and communication.
