COVID-19 EMERGENCY COURT RULES.

The following are changes to the California Rules of Court and Emergency Rules issued by the California Supreme Court as Appendix I amended effective January 1, 2022; adopted effective April 6, 2020; previously amended effective April 17, 2020, April 20, 2020, June 20, 2020, August 13, 2020, and November 13, 2020. The first entry is the amended Cal. Rules of Court, Rule 8.66, and the subsequent entries are the Emergency Rules Related to COVID-19, adopted as Appendix I to the Rules of Court.

Rule 8.66. Tolling or extending time because of public emergency

(a) Emergency tolling or extensions of time If made necessary by the occurrence or danger of an earthquake, fire, public health crisis, or other public emergency, or by the destruction of or danger to a building housing a reviewing court, the Chair of the Judicial Council, notwithstanding any other rule in this title, may:

(1) Toll for up to 30 days or extend by no more than 30 days any time periods specified by these rules; or

(2) Authorize specified courts to toll for up to 30 days or extend by no more than 30 days any time periods specified by these rules. (Subd (a) amended effective January 1, 2007.)

(Subd (a) amended effective April 4, 2020.)

(b) Applicability of order

(1) An order under (a)(1) must specify the length of the tolling or extension and whether the order applies throughout the state, only to specified courts, or only to courts or attorneys in specified geographic areas, or applies in some other manner.

(2) An order under (a)(2) must specify the length of the authorized tolling or extension.

(Subd (b) amended effective April 4, 2020.)

(c) Renewed orders If made necessary by the nature or extent of the public emergency, with or without a request, the Chair of the Judicial Council may renew an order issued under this rule prior to its expiration. An order may be renewed for additional periods not to exceed 30 days per renewal.

(Subd (c) amended effective April 4, 2020; previously amended effective January 1, 2007.)

Rule 8.66 amended effective April 4, 2020; previously amended and renumbered effective January 1, 2007; repealed and adopted as rule

45.1 effective January 1, 2005.

EMERGENCY RULES RELATED TO COVID-19 (As of 1/1/22)

Emergency rule 1. Unlawful detainees

(a) Application Notwithstanding any other law, including Code of Civil Procedure sections 1166, 9 1167, 1169, and 1170.5, this rule applies to all actions for unlawful detainer.

(b) Issuance of summons A court may not issue a summons on a complaint for unlawful detainer unless the court finds, in its discretion and on the record, that the action is necessary to protect public health and safety.

(c) Entry of default A court may not enter a default or a default judgment for restitution in an unlawful detainer action for failure of defendant to appear unless the court finds both of the following:

(1) The action is necessary to protect public health and safety; and

(2) The defendant has not appeared in the action within the time provided by law, including by any applicable executive order.

(d) Time for trial If a defendant has appeared in the action, the court may not set a trial date earlier than 60 days after a request for trial is made unless the court finds that an earlier trial date is necessary to protect public health and safety. Any trial set in an unlawful detainer proceeding as of April 6, 2020 must be continued at least 60 days from the initial date of trial.

(e) Sunset of rule This rule will remain in effect through September 1, 2020, or until amended or repealed by the Judicial Council. Notwithstanding Code of Civil Procedure section 1170.5 and this subdivision, any trial date set under (d) as of September 1, 2020, will remain as set unless a court otherwise orders.

(Subd (e) amended effective August 13, 2020.)

Emergency Rule 1 amended effective August 13, 2020. 3

Emergency rule 2. Judicial foreclosures—suspension of actions

Notwithstanding any other law, this rule applies to any action for foreclosure on a mortgage or deed of trust brought under chapter 1, title 10, of part 2 of the Code of Civil Procedure, beginning at section 725a, including any action for a deficiency judgment, and provides that, through September 1, 2020, or until this rule is amended or repealed by the Judicial Council:

(1) All such actions are stayed, and the court may take no action and issue no decisions or judgments unless the court finds that action is required to further the public health and safety.

(2) The period for electing or exercising any rights under that chapter, including exercising any right of redemption from a foreclosure sale or petitioning the court in relation to such a right, is extended.

Emergency Rule 2 amended effective August 13, 2020.

Advisory Committee Comment 24

The provision for tolling any applicable statute of limitations, in prior subdivision (2), has been removed as unnecessary because the tolling provisions in emergency rule 9 apply to actions subject to this rule.

Emergency rule 3. Use of technology for remote appearances

(a) Remote appearances Notwithstanding any other law, in order to protect the health and safety of the public, including court users, both in custody and out of custody defendants, witnesses, court personnel, judicial officers, and others, courts must conduct criminal proceedings and court operations as follows:

(1) Courts may require that criminal proceedings and court operations be conducted remotely.

(2) In criminal proceedings, courts must receive the consent of the defendant to conduct the proceeding remotely and otherwise comply with emergency rule 2 5. Notwithstanding Penal Code sections 865 and 977 or any other law, the court may conduct any criminal proceeding remotely. As used in this rule, “consent of the defendant” means that the consent of the defendant is required only for the waiver of the defendant’s appearance as provided in emergency rule 5. For good cause shown, the court may require any witness to personally appear in a particular proceeding.

(3) Conducting criminal proceedings remotely includes, but is not limited to, the use of video, audio, and telephonic means for remote appearances; the electronic exchange and authentication of documentary evidence; e-filing and e-service; the use of remote interpreting; and the use of remote reporting and electronic recording to make the official record of an action or proceeding.

(Subd (a) amended effective January 1, 2022.)

(b) Sunset of rule This rule will remain in effect until 90 days after the Governor declares that the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic is lifted, or until amended or repealed by the Judicial Council.

Emergency Rule 3 amended effective January 1, 2022.

Emergency rule 4. Emergency Bail Schedule [Repealed]

Emergency rule 4 repealed effective June 20, 2020.

Emergency rule 5. Personal appearance waivers of defendants during health emergency 31

(a) Application Notwithstanding any other law, including Penal Code sections 865 and 977, this rule applies to all criminal proceedings except cases alleging murder with special circumstances and cases in which the defendant is currently incarcerated in state prison, as governed by Penal Code section 977.2.

(b) Types of personal appearance waivers

(1) With the consent of the defendant, the court must allow a defendant to waive his or her personal appearance and to appear remotely, either through video or telephonic appearance, when the technology is available.

(2) With the consent of the defendant, the court must allow a defendant to waive his or her appearance and permit counsel to appear on his or her behalf. The court must accept a defendant’s waiver of appearance or personal appearance when:

(A) Counsel for the defendant makes an on the record oral representation that counsel has fully discussed the waiver and its implications with the defendant and the defendant has authorized counsel to proceed as counsel represents to the court;

(B) Electronic communication from the defendant as confirmed by defendant's counsel; or

(C) Any other means that ensures the validity of the defendant's waiver.

(c) Consent by the defendant

(1) For purposes of arraignment and entry of a not guilty plea, consent means a knowing, intelligent, and voluntary waiver of the right to appear personally in court. Counsel for the defendant must state on the record at each applicable hearing that counsel is proceeding with the defendant's consent.

(2) For purposes of waiving time for a preliminary hearing, consent also means a knowing, intelligent, and voluntary waiver of the right to hold a preliminary hearing within required time limits specified either in Penal Code section 859b or under emergency orders issued by the Chief Justice and Chair of the Judicial Council.

(3) The court must accept defense counsel's representation that the defendant understands and agrees with waiving any right to appear unless the court has specific concerns in a particular matter about the validity of the waiver.

(d) Appearance through counsel

(1) When counsel appears on behalf of a defendant, courts must allow counsel to do any of the following:

(A) Waive reading and advisement of rights for arraignment.

(B) Enter a plea of not guilty.

(C) Waive time for the preliminary hearing.

(2) For appearances by counsel, including where the defendant is either appearing remotely or has waived his or her appearance and or counsel is appearing by remote access, counsel must confirm to the court at each hearing that the appearance by counsel is made with the consent of the defendant.

(e) Conduct of remote hearings

(1) With the defendant's consent, a defendant may appear remotely for any pre-trial criminal proceeding.

(2) Where a defendant appears remotely, counsel may not be required to be personally present with the defendant for any portion of the criminal proceeding provided that the audio and/or video conferencing system or other technology allows for private communication between the defendant and his or her counsel. Any private communication is confidential and privileged under Evidence Code section 952.

(f) Sunset of rule This rule will remain in effect until 90 days after the Governor declares that the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic is lifted, or until amended or repealed by the Judicial Council.

Emergency rule 6. Emergency orders: juvenile dependency proceedings

(a) Application This rule applies to all juvenile dependency proceedings filed or pending until the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic is lifted.

(b) Essential hearings and orders The following matters should be prioritized in accordance with existing statutory time requirements.

(1) Protective custody warrants filed under Welfare and Institutions Code section 340.

(2) Detention hearings under Welfare and Institutions Code section 319. The court is required to determine if it is contrary to the child's welfare to remain with the parent, whether reasonable efforts were made to prevent removal, and whether to vest the placing agency with temporary placement and care.

(3) Psychotropic medication applications.

(4) Emergency medical requests.

(5) A petition for reentry of a nonminor dependent.

(6) Welfare and Institutions Code section 388 petitions that require an immediate response based on the health and safety of the child, which should be reviewed for a prima facie showing of change of circumstances sufficient to grant the petition or to set a hearing. The court may extend the final ruling on the petition beyond 30 days.

(c) Foster care hearings and continuances during the state of emergency

(1) A court may hold any proceeding under this rule via remote technology consistent with rule 5.531 and emergency rule 3.

(2) At the beginning of any hearing at which one or more participants appears remotely, the court must admonish all the participants that the proceeding is confidential and of the possible sanctions for violating confidentiality.

(3) The child welfare agency is responsible for notice of remote hearings unless other arrangements have been made with counsel for parents and children. Notice is required for all parties and may include notice by telephone or other electronic means. The notice must also include instructions on how to participate in the court hearing remotely.

(4) Court reports

(A) Attorneys for parents and children must accept service of the court report electronically.

(B) The child welfare agency must ensure that the parent and the child receive a copy of the court report on time.

(C) If a parent or child cannot receive the report electronically, the child welfare agency must deliver a hard copy of the report to the parent and the child on time.

(5) Nothing in this subdivision prohibits the court from making statutorily required findings and orders, by minute order only and without a court reporter, by accepting written stipulations from counsel when appearances are waived if the stipulations are confirmed on the applicable Judicial Council forms or equivalent local court forms.

(6) If a court hearing cannot occur either in the court-house or remotely, the hearing may be continued up to 60 days, except as otherwise specified.

(A) A dispositional hearing under Welfare and Institutions Code section 360 should not be continued more than 6 months after the detention hearing without review of the child's circumstances. In determining exceptional circumstances that justify holding the dispositional hearing more than 6 months after the child was taken into protective custody, the impact of the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic must be considered.

i. If the dispositional hearing is continued more than 6 months after the start date of protective custody, a review of the child must be held at the 6-month date. At the review, the court must determine the continued necessity for and appropriateness of the placement; the extent of compliance with the case plan or available services that have been offered; the extent of progress which has been made toward alleviating or mitigating the causes necessitating placement; and the projected likely date by which the child may return home or placed permanently.

ii. The court may continue the matter for a full hearing on all dispositional findings and orders.

(B) A judicial determination of reasonable efforts must be made within 12 months of the date a child enters foster care to maintain a child's federal title IV-E availability. If a permanency hearing is continued beyond the 12-month date, the court must review the case to determine if the agency has made reasonable efforts to return the child home or arrange for the child to be placed permanently. This finding can be made without prejudice and may be reconsidered at a full hearing.

(7) During the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic, previously authorized visitation must continue, but the child welfare agency is to determine the manner of visitation to ensure that the needs of the family are met. If the child welfare agency changes the manner of visitation for a child and a parent or legal guardian in reunification, or for the child and a sibling(s), or a hearing is pending under Welfare and Institutions Code section 366.26, the child welfare agency must notify the attorneys for the children and parents within 5 court days of the change. All changes in manner of visitation during this time period must be made on a case by case basis, balance the public health directives and best interest of the child, and take into consideration whether in-person visitation may continue to be held safely. Family time is important for child and parent well-being, as well as for efforts toward reunification. Family time is especially important during times of crisis. Visitation may only be suspended if a detriment finding is made in a particular case based on the facts unique to that case. A detriment finding must not be based solely on the existence of the impact of the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic or related public health directives.

(A) The attorney for the child or parent may ask the juvenile court to review the change in manner of visitation. The child or parent has the burden of showing that the change is not in the best interest of the child or is not based on current public health directives.

(B) A request for the court to review the change in visitation during this time period must be made within 14 court days of the change. In reviewing the change in visitation, the court should take into consideration the factors in (c)(7).

(d) Sunset of rule This rule will remain in effect until 90 days after the Governor declares that the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic is lifted, or until amended or repealed by the Judicial Council.

Advisory Committee Comment

When courts are unable to hold regular proceedings because of an emergency that has resulted in an order as authorized under Government Code section 68115, federal timelines do not stop. Circumstances may arise where reunification services to the parent, including visitation, may not occur or be provided. The court must consider the circumstances of the emergency when deciding whether to extend or terminate reunification services and whether services were reasonable given the state of the emergency. ## Emergency rule 7. Emergency orders: juvenile delinquency proceedings

- (a) Application This rule applies to all proceedings in which a petition has been filed under Welfare and Institutions Code section 602 in which a hearing would be statutorily required during the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic.
- (b) Juvenile delinquency hearings and orders during the state of emergency
  - (1) A hearing on a petition for a child who is in custody under Welfare and Institutions Code section 632 or 636 must be held within the statutory timeframes as modified by an order of the court authorized by Government Code section 68115. The court must determine if it is contrary to the welfare of the child to remain in the home, whether reasonable services to prevent removal occurred, and whether to place temporary placement with the probation agency if the court will be keeping the child detained and out of the home.
- (2) If a child is detained in custody and an in-person appearance is not feasible due to the state of emergency, courts must make reasonable efforts to hold any statutorily required hearing for that case via remote appearance within the required statutory time frame and as modified by an order of the court authorized under Government Code section 68115 for that proceeding. If a remote proceeding is not a feasible option for such a case during the state of emergency, the court may continue the case as provided in (d) for the minimum period of time necessary to hold the proceedings.
- (3) Without regard to the custodial status of the child, the following hearings should be prioritized during the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic:
  - (A) Psychotropic medication applications.
  - (B) All emergency medical requests.
  - (C) A petition for reentry of a nonminor dependent.
  - (D) A hearing on any request for a warrant for a child.

(E) A probable cause determination for a child who has been detained but has not had a detention hearing within the statutory time limits.

(4) Notwithstanding any other law, and except as described in (5), during the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic, the court may continue for good cause any hearing for a child not detained in custody who is subject to its juvenile delinquency jurisdiction until a date after the state of emergency has been lifted considering the priority for continued hearings in (d).

(5) For children placed in foster care under probation supervision, a judicial determination of reasonable efforts must be made within 12 months of the date the child enters foster care to maintain a child's federal title IV-E availability. If a permanency hearing is continued beyond the 12-month date, the court must nevertheless hold a review to determine if the agency has made reasonable efforts to return the child home or place the child permanently. This finding can be made without prejudice and may be reconsidered at a full hearing.

(c) Proceedings with remote appearances during the state of emergency.

(1) A court may hold any proceeding under this rule via remote technology consistent with rule 5.531 and emergency rule 3.

(2) At the beginning of any hearing conducted with one or more participants appearing remotely, the court must admonish all the participants that the proceeding is confidential and of the possible sanctions for violating confidentiality.

(3) The court is responsible for giving notice of remote hearings, except for notice to a victim, which is the responsibility of the prosecuting attorney or the probation department. Notice is required for all parties and may include notice by telephone or other electronic means. The notice must also include instructions on how to participate in the hearing remotely.

(4) During the state of emergency, the court has broad discretion to take evidence in the manner most compatible with the remote hearing process, including but not limited to taking testimony by written declaration. If counsel for a child or the prosecuting attorney objects to the court's evidentiary procedures, that is a basis for issuing a continuance under (d).

(d) Continuances of hearings during the state of emergency. Notwithstanding any other law, the court may for good cause continue any hearing other than a detention hearing for a child who is detained in custody. In making this determination, the court must consider the custody status of the child, whether there are evidentiary issues that are contested, and, if so, the ability for those issues to be fairly contested via a remote proceeding.

(e) Extension of time limits under Welfare and Institutions Code section 709 In any case in which a child has been found incompetent under Welfare and Institutions Code section 709 and that child is eligible for remediation services or has been found to require secure detention, any time limits imposed by section 709 for provision of services or for secure detention are tolled for the period of the state of emergency if the court finds that remediation services could not be provided because of the state of emergency.

(f) Sunset of rule This rule will remain in effect until 90 days after the Governor declares that the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic is lifted, or until amended or repealed by the Judicial Council.

Advisory Committee Comment

This emergency rule is being adopted in part to ensure that detention hearings for juveniles in delinquency court must be held in a timely manner to ensure that no child is detained who does not need to be detained to protect the child or the community. The statutory scheme for juveniles who come under the jurisdiction of the delinquency court is focused on the rehabilitation of the child and thus makes detention of a child the exceptional practice, rather than the rule. Juvenile courts are able to use their broad discretion under current law to release detained juveniles to protect the health of those juveniles and the health and safety of the others in detention during the current state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic.

Emergency rule 8. Emergency orders: temporary restraining or protective orders

(a) Application Notwithstanding any other law, this rule applies to any emergency protective order, temporary restraining order, or criminal protective order that was requested, issued, or set to expire during the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic. This includes requests and orders issued under Family Code sections 6250 or 6300, Code of Civil Procedure sections 527.6, 527.8, or 527.85, Penal Code sections 136.2, 18125 or 18150, or Welfare and Institutions Code sections 213.5, 304, 362.4, or 15657.03, and including any of the foregoing orders issued in connection with an order for modification of a custody or visitation order issued pursuant to a dissolution, legal separation, nullity, or parentage proceeding under Family Code section 6221.

(b) Duration of orders

(1) Any emergency protective order made under Family Code section 6250 that is issued during the state of emergency must remain in effect for up to 30 days from the date of issuance.

(2) Any temporary restraining order or gun violence emergency protective order issued or set to expire during the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic must remain in effect for a period of time that the court determines is sufficient to allow for a hearing on the long-term order to occur, for up to 90 days.

(3) Any criminal protective order, subject to this rule, set to expire during the state of emergency, must be automatically extended for a period of 90 days, or until the matter can be heard, whichever occurs first.

(4) Upon the filing of a request to renew a restraining order after hearing that is set to expire during the state of emergency related to the COVID-19 pandemic, the current restraining order after hearing must remain in effect until a hearing on the renewal can occur, for up to 90 days from the date of expiration.

(Subd (b) amended effective April 20, 2020.)

(c) Ex parte requests and re- quests to renew restraining orders

(1) Courts must provide a means for the filing of ex parte requests for temporary restraining orders and requests to renew restraining orders. Courts may do so by providing a physical location, drop box, or, if feasible, through electronic means.

(2) Any ex parte request and request to renew restraining orders may be filed using an electronic signature by a party or a party's attorney.

(d) Service of Orders If a respondent appears at a hearing by video, audio, or telephonically, and the court grants an order, in whole or in part, no further service is required upon the respondent for enforcement of the order, provided that the court follows the requirements of Family Code section 6384.

(e) Entry of orders into California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System Any orders issued by a court modifying the duration or expiration date of orders subject to this rule, must be transmitted to the Department of Justice through the California Law Enforcement Telecommunications System (CLETS), as provided in Family Code section 6380, without regard to whether they are issued on Judicial Council forms, or in another format during the state of emergency.

Emergency Rule 8 amended effective April 20, 2020.

Emergency rule 9. Tolling statutes of limitations for civil causes of action

(a) Tolling statutes of limitations over 180 days Notwithstanding any other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that exceed 180 days are tolled from April 6, 2020, until October 1, 2020.

(Subd (a) amended effective May 29, 2020.)

(b) Tolling statutes of limitations of 180 days or less Notwithstanding any other law, the statutes of limitations and repose for civil causes of action that are 180 days or less are tolled from April 6, 2020, until August 3, 2020.

(Subd (b) amended effective May 29, 2020.)

Emergency Rule 9 amended effective May 29, 2020.

Advisory Committee Comment

Emergency rule 9 is intended to apply broadly to toll any statute of limitations on the filing of a pleading in court asserting a civil cause of action. The term “civil causes of action” includes special proceedings. (See Code Civ. Proc., §§ 312, 363 [“action,” as used in title 2 of the code (Of the Time of Commencing Civil Actions), is construed “as including a special proceeding of a civil nature”]; special proceedings of a civil nature include all proceedings in title 3 of the code, including mandamus actions under §§ 1085, 1088.5, and 1094.5—all the types of petitions for writ made for California Environmental Quality Act (CEQA) and land use challenges]; see also Pub. Resources Code, § 21167(a)–(e) [setting limitations periods for civil “action[s]” under CEQA].)

The rule also applies to statutes of limitations on filing of causes of action in court found in codes other than the Code of Civil Procedure, including the limitations on causes of action found in, for example, the Family Code and Probate Code.

Emergency rule 10. Extensions of time in which to bring a civil action to trial

(a) Extension of five years in which to bring a civil action to trial Notwithstanding any other law, including Code of Civil Procedure section 583.310, for all civil actions filed on or before April 6, 2020, the time in which to bring the action to trial is extended by six months for a total time of five years and six months.

(b) Extension of three years in which to bring a new trial Notwithstanding any other law, including Code of Civil Procedure section 583.320, for all civil actions filed on or before April 6, 2020, if a new trial is granted in the action, the three years provided in section 583.320 in which the action must again be brought to trial is extended by six months for a total time of three years and six months. Nothing in this subdivision requires that an action must again be brought to trial before expiration of the time prescribed in (a).

Emergency rule 11. Depositions through remote electronic means

Emergency rule 11 repealed effective November 13, 2020.

Emergency rule 12. Electronic service

Emergency rule 12 repealed effective November 13, 2020.

Emergency rule 13. Effective date for requests to modify support

(a) Application Notwithstanding any other law, including Family Code sections 3591, 3603, 3653, and 4333, this rule applies to all requests to modify or terminate child, spousal, partner, or family support. For the purpose of this rule, “request” refers to Request for Order (form FL-300), Notice of Motion (Governmental) (form FL-680), or other moving papers requesting a modification of support.

(b) Effective date of modification Except as provided in Family Code section 3653(b), an order modifying or terminating a support order may be made effective as of the date the request and supporting papers are mailed or otherwise served on the other party, or other party’s attorney when permitted. Nothing in this rule restricts the court’s discretion to order a later effective date.

(c) Service of filed request If the request and supporting papers that were served have not yet been filed with the court, the moving party must also serve a copy of the request and supporting papers after they have been filed with the court on the other party, or other party’s attorney when permitted. If the moving party is the local child support agency and the unfiled request already has a valid court date and time listed, then subsequent service of the request is not required.

(d) Court discretion Nothing in this rule is meant to limit court discretion or to alter rule 5.92 or 5.260 regarding which moving papers are required to request a modification of support.

See Ch. 33, Contractual Arbitration: Appointment of Arbitrator and Conduct of Proceeding, § 33.14[2][a][xiii].

Contractual Arbitration—

See Ch. 33, Contractual Arbitration: Appointment of Arbitrator and Con-

See Ch. 33, Contractual Arbitration: Appointment of Arbitrator and Conduct of Proceeding, § 33.15[2].

Contractual Arbitration—

See Ch. 43, Appeal: Stay of Proceedings, § 43.15[15].

Mandatory Injunctions Stayed on Appeal. In Daly v. San Bernardino County Bd. of Supervisors (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 1030, 1039, 282 Cal. See Ch. 43, Appeal: Stay of Proceedings, § 43.17.

CIVIL PROCEDURE

Amended Pleadings—Abuse of Discretion. In Tung v. Chicago Title Co. (2021) 63 Cal. App. 5th 734, 278 Cal. Rptr. 3d 182, a suit for breach of fiduciary duty and fraud brought against a title company and its escrow officer by a seller of real property, denying leave to amend the complaint was error because the seller's failure to adequately plead, as damages, attorney fees incurred in quieting title did not result in surprise or prejudice, in light of evidence that the seller's intent to pursue attorney fees as damages had been obvious and clarification easily could have been obtained. See Ch. 21, Amended and Supplemental Pleadings, § 21.43 [4][e].

Anti-SLAPP Motions—Acts Alleged Alleged Protected And Versus Provide Background. In Bonni v. St. Joseph Health System (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 995, 1012, 281 Cal. Rptr. 3d 678, 491 P.3d 1058, the California Supreme Court held that statements made during and in connection with peer review proceedings and disciplinary reports filed with official bodies qualified as protected activity under Code Civ. Proc. § 425.16, the discipline imposed through the peer review process did not. See Ch. 376, Motions to Strike: Anti-SLAPP, § 376.14[4].

Anti-SLAPP Motions—Inapplicable to Defense. In Morris Cerullo World Evangelism v. Newport Harbor Offices & Marina, LLC (2021) 67 Cal. App. 5th 1149, 1156, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 164, the court of appeal held that an anti-SLAPP motion may not be directed to an answer, including affirmative defenses in the answer. See Ch. 376, Motions to Strike: Anti-SLAPP, § 376.14 [1].

Contempt—Stalking. Penal Code § 166 is amended to add prohibited methods of stalking to include social media, electronic communication, or electronic communication device; and limits the contempt fine to $5,000. See Ch. 135, Contempt, § 135.15[2].

Continuance—Absent Witness or Evidence. In Braganza v. Albertson's LLC (2021) 67 Cal. App. 5th 144, 156, 282 Cal. Rptr. 3d 66, a premises liability and negligence action arising from plaintiff's slip and fall on the floor of defendant's grocery store, the trial court did not abuse its discretion in denying plaintiff's request under Code Civ. Proc. § 437c(h), to continue the hearing on defendant's summary judgment motion where plaintiff's counsel failed to show diligence in completing the necessary floor inspection and testing, as he made no attempt to show, in his declaration in support of the continuance request, why the inspection and testing of the floor area by plaintiff's expert, and the expert's declaration in opposition to defendant's motion, could not have been completed before plaintiff's opposition to defendant's motion was due. See Ch. 136, Continuances, § 136.45 [1][a].

Continuance—Expert Witness. Qaadir v. Figueroa (2021) 67 Cal. App. 5th 790, 814, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d

97 holds that given that none of these cases cited by defendants held that a trial court abuses its discretion to deny an open-ended continuance to allow an expert witness, whose deposition testimony has been videotaped and who has presented his full and complete opinions in the deposition, to testify at trial, defendants failed to show the trial court abused its discretion in denying their request for continuance or that the denial was prejudicial. See Ch. 136, Continuances, § 136.45[1][b].

Dismissal—Order Effectively Disposing of Action. In Guttman v. Guttman (2021) 2021 Cal. App. LEXIS 1014, *20, the court of appeal held that a plaintiff could not voluntarily dismiss a partnership dissolution action after the court granted a buyout motion. See Ch. 212, Dismissal, § 212.36[1].

Judges—Bias or Prejudice. In Jolie v. Superior Court (2021) 66 Cal. App. 5th 1025, 1045, 281 Cal. Rptr. 3d 610, the judge failed to timely disclose professional relationships with a party's counsel because disclosure months later, but before the appointment ended, was inadequate, and disqualification was required because the undisclosed matters could cause an objective person reasonably to entertain doubt as to the judge's ability to be impartial. See Ch. 317, Judges, § 317.114[1][a].

Motions and Hearings—Telephonic Appearances. Effective January 1, 2022, Cal. Rules of Ct, Rule 3.6760(b) provides subdivisions (c) through (i) of this rule are suspended from January 1, 2022, to July 1, 2023, during which time the provisions in rule 3.672 apply in their place. This rule applies to all general civil cases as defined in rule 1.6 and to unlawful detainer and probate proceedings. See Ch. 372, Motions and Orders, § 372.21[16][a].

Motions and Hearings—New Rule of Court for Remote Proceedings with New Judicial Council Forms. Effective January 1, 2022, new Cal. Rules of Ct., Rule 3.672 now governs procedures relating to remote appearances and proceedings in civil cases. See Ch. 372, Motions and Orders, §§ 372.21[16A], 372.63, 372.63A, 372.63B.

Name Change—Nonresidents. Effective January 1, 2023, Code Civ. Proc. § 1276 is amended to provide procedures for persons, including nonresidents, to apply for a change of name when a birth certificate issued to the that person or that person's legal child, or that person's marriage license was issued in California. See Ch. 377, Name, Change of, § 377.14[1].

Personal Jurisdiction—Inconvenient Forum—Factors to be Considered. In Aghaian v. Minassian (2021) 64 Cal. App. 5th 603, 613, 279 Cal. Rptr. 3d 191, an unjust enrichment case relating to property in Iran, defendant's renewed motion under Code Civ. Proc. §§ 418.10, 410.30 to dismiss or stay based on inconvenient forum was properly denied because the court's prior holding that Iran was not a suitable alternative forum was law of the case, given that the determination was necessary to the ultimate holding and there was not change in the key facts, specifically, that Iranian courts discriminate against women and non-Muslims, and plaintiffs were non-Muslim women. See Ch. 323, Jurisdiction: Personal Jurisdiction, Inconvenient Forum, and Appearances, § 323.102[7].

Personal Jurisdiction—Minimum Contacts. In Doe v. Dameron (2021) 70 Cal. App. 5th 684, 692, — Cal. Rptr. 3d —, a tort action arising from an assault by a spouse while a Georgia couple was traveling in California, the California court had personal jurisdiction under Code Civ. Proc. § 410.10. Visitors to a state should reasonably expect that, if they assault someone on their travels, they may have to answer for their conduct in the state's courts. See Ch. 323, Jurisdiction: Personal Jurisdiction, Inconvenient Forum, and Appearances, § 323.86[8][b].

Personal Jurisdiction—Minimum Contacts. In Swenberg v. dmarcian, Inc. (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 280, 298, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 465, specific personal jurisdiction existed pursuant to California's long-arm statute, Code Civ. Proc. § 410.10, over a nonresident individual in a dispute about stock options, even without establishing that the individual was an officer or director of a California company or that the company operated as a single entity with a European company, because there was clear evidence that the individual had made use of a company website to assert leadership status without indicating that there was a distinction between the California company and any other entity, which amounted to purposeful availment of forum benefits. See Ch. 323, Jurisdiction: Personal Jurisdiction, Inconvenient Forum, and Appearances, § 323.86[8][b].

Personal Jurisdiction—Minimum Contacts. In Jacqueline B. v. Rawls Law Group, P.C. (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 243, 254, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 279, California court did not have specific personal jurisdiction over a Virginia-based law firm with Virginia-licensed lawyers in a malpractice action arising from the firm's negotiation with a federal agency's lawyers in Arizona to settle their client's federal tort claim for of injuries the client suffered in California. The law firm and its lawyers did nothing to purposefully avail themselves of the benefits of doing business in California, and the allegedly bad advice underlying the malpractice lawsuit was not sufficiently related to the lawyers' contacts with California. At most, the law firm operated a website that could be accessed by California residents, but the website did not target California residents specifically. See Ch. 323, Jurisdiction: Personal Jurisdiction, Inconvenient Forum, and Appearances, § 323.86[8][c].

Personal Jurisdiction—

Minimum Contacts. In Rivelli v. Hemm (2021) 67 Cal. App. 5th 380, 394, 282 Cal. Rptr. 3d 181, case-linked (specific) personal jurisdiction was lacking under California's long-arm statute, Code Civ. Proc. § 410.10, as to fraud, breach of fiduciary duty, and other claims brought against a Swiss corporation and one of its board members after the Swiss corporation purchased shares of a California corporation because the trial court found no evidence of fraudulent or tortious conduct by the board member in serving on both corporations' boards and the Swiss corporation's contacts with the forum were through the board member, and thus the claims did not arise from and bore little relation to the activities shown to have been directed at the forum. See Ch. 323, Jurisdiction: Personal Jurisdiction, Inconvenient Forum, and Appearances, § 323.86[8][c].

Limitation of Actions—Choice of Law. In Lebrun v. CBS Television Studios, Inc. (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 199, 209, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 260, a fraud claim could not be maintained in California because, for purposes of Code Civ. Proc. § 361, the claim arose in Louisiana and Louisiana's one-year statute of limitations had lapsed; the producer's acts occurred in Louisiana, to residents of Louisiana, resulting in injuries sustained in Louisiana, and the studios's alleged ratification in California rendered it liable for those acts but was not independently wrongful, did not cause any separate injuries, and was irrelevant to determining where the causes of action arose)]. See Ch. 345, Limitation of Actions, § 345.13[3].

Limitation of Actions—Delayed Accrual.

Holman v. County of Butte (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 189, 194, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 271, holds that the common law discovery rule is available when the statute of limitations under Code Civ. Proc. § 338(a) is the applicable statute of limitations. See Ch. 345, Limitation of Actions, §§345.18[3][a], 345.19[3][a].

Limitation of Actions—

Contracts. Vera v. REL-BC, LLC (2021) 66 Cal. App. 5th 57, 65, 281 Cal. Rptr. 3d 45, holds that three-year limitations period for fraud under Code Civ. Proc. § 338(d) applied to a breach of contract claim alleging nondisclosure by real estate sellers because fraud was the gravamen of the cause of action). See Ch. 345, Limitation of Actions, § 345.184.

Limitation of Actions—

California Fair Employment and Housing Act. Pollock v. Tri-Modal Distribution Services, Inc. (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 918, 941, 281 Cal. Rptr. 3d 498 holds that in a FEHA harassment claim based on a failure to promote accrues, the limitations period under Gov. Code § 12960 begins to run when the aggrieved employee knows or reasonably should know of the employer's decision not to promote him or her; it is not enough to identify when an employer made its decision not to promote the employee, and what starts the clock is the employee's actual or constructive knowledge of the employer's decision). See Ch. 345, Limitation of Actions, § 345.204.

Limitation of Actions—

Environmental Law. In Save Lafayette Trees v. East Bay Regional Park Dist. (2021) 66 Cal. App. 5th 21, 36, 280 Cal. Rptr. 3d 679, a challenge to a regional park district's approval of an agreement with a utility company, which provided for removal of trees in close proximity to a natural gas line on district property, was time-barred under Pub. Resources Code, § 21167, because the utility company, as a real party in interest and a necessary and indispensable party under Code Civ. Proc., § 389, had not consented to a tolling agreement. See Ch. 345, Limitation of Actions, § 345.205.

Limitation of Actions—Public Entities, Officers, and Employees.

Holman v. County of Butte (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 189, 194, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 271, holds that the common law discovery rule is available when the statute of limitations under Code Civ. Proc. § 338(a) is the applicable statute of limitations. See Ch. 345, Limitation of Actions, § 345.282.

Parties—Timeliness of Motion to

Intervene. In Crestwood Behavioral Health, Inc. v. Lacy (2021) 70 Cal. App. 5th 560, 574, 2021 Cal. App. LEXIS 864, the court of appeal held that prejudice to existing parties due to the movant's delay is the most important consideration in deciding whether a motion for intervention is timely. See Ch. 395, Parties, § 395.36.

Res Judicata—Judicial Estoppel.

In DotConnectAfrica Trust v. Internet Corp. for Assigned Names & Numbers (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 1141, 1159, 284 Cal. Rptr. 3d 135, a party was estopped from suing in court after arguing to arbitrators that it could not sue in court. See Ch. 491, Res Judicata, § 491.21[1].

Sanctions—Evidentiary Burden.

In Kumar v. Ramsey (2021) 2021 Cal. App. LEXIS 988, *15, *25, the court of appeal held that because sanctions under Code Civ. Proc. § 128.7 should be imposed only in the rare and exceptional case, the evidentiary burden to avoid sanctions is light. See Ch. 510, Sanctions, § 510.12[13][a].

Settlements—Offer to Compromise Pursuant to Code Civ. Proc. § 998. Wasito v. Kazali (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 422, 426, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 494, holds that Lab. Code §§ 206 and 206.5 preclude a pretrial offer under Code Civ. Proc. § 998 that resolves disputed wage claims if there are undisputed wages due at the time of the offer. Because defendants made a § 998 offer before paying bonuses defendants conceded were due, the offer was invalid. Accordingly, the cost-shifting provision of § 998(c) did not apply. See Ch. 520, Settlement and Release, § 520.76[7].

Small Claims—Revised Forms.

The Judicial Council has issued revised small claims forms for January 1, 2022: SC-100, Plaintiff's Claim and ORDER to Go to Small Claims Court; and SC-103, Fictitious Business Name. See Ch. 526, Small Claims, §§ 526.151, 536.155.

Statutory Interpretation—

Retroactivity. In McHugh v. Protective Life Ins. (2021) 12 Cal. 5th 213, the California Supreme Court reversed judgment for the insurer in the insured's suit for life-insurance benefits, holding that Ins. Code §§ 10113.71 and 10113.72, which provided grace-period and notice requirements effective January 1, 2013, applies to a policy issued in 2005, and prevented the insurer from cancelling the policy in question because of missed payments. See Ch. 531, Statutes and Ordinances, § 531.54[b].

Statutory Interpretation—

Commonsense Construction. In People v. Raybon (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 1056, the California Supreme Court held that Penal Code § 4573.6, which criminalizes possession of a controlled substance in a state correctional facility, falls within the exception to Health and Safety Code § 11362.45 (Proposition 64; generally legalizing adult possession of cannabis) in that the exception, for “laws pertaining to smoking or ingesting cannabis,” is broad enough to encompass Penal Code § 4573.6. See Ch. 531, Statutes and Ordinances, § 531.56.

Statutory

Interpretation—Public-Works

Projects. In Mendoza v. Fonseca McElroy Grinding Co., Inc. (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 1118, the California Supreme Court, answering a certified question from the 9th Circuit, held that “mobilization” workers who load and transport heavy machines to public-works job sites are not entitled to prevailing wages under Labor Code § 1771 because mobilization does not qualify as public work. See Ch. 531, Statutes and Ordinances, § 531.56.

Venue—Injury to Person or Personal Property. Williams v. Superior Court (2021) 71 Cal. App. 5th 101, 112, — Cal. Rptr. 3d — holds that a civil harassment claim under Code Civ. Proc. § 527.6, alleging that harassing telephone calls and emails had caused emotional distress and related physical ailments, was not a claim for injury to person under the general venue statute, Code Civ. Proc. § 395(a), although classified as injury to the person by Code Civ. Proc. § 27, because the alleged injuries had no definite situs, and thus the general rule placing venue in the defendant’s county of residence applied. See Ch. 571, Venue, § 571.62[6][d].

CIVIL RIGHTS

Housing Discrimination. Govt. Code §§ 12956.1 and 12956.2 have been amended to modify provisions governing restrictive covenants. See Ch. 117, Civil Rights: Housing Discrimination, § 117.14[5]. Gov. Code § 12955 has been amended to prohibit housing discrimination by real-estate appraisers. See Ch. 117, Civil Rights: Housing Discrimination, § 117.14[3].

Damages in 42 U.S.C. § 1983 Action. Code Civ. Proc. § 377.34 allows damages for pain, suffering, or disfigurement in a survival action that was granted a preference (see Code Civ. Proc. § 36) before January 1, 2022, or was filed on or after January 1, 2022, and before January 1, 2026. See Ch. 113, Civil Rights: The Post-Civil War Civil Rights Statutes, § 113.14[10].

Tom Bane Civil Rights Act. Civil Code § 52.1 has been amended to add subsections (n) and (o), which provide that immunity provisions (Gov. Code §§ 821.6, 844.6, and 845.6) do not apply to actions against peace officers or custodial officers; and that certain indemnification provisions (Gov. Code §§ 825, 825.2, 825.4) apply to actions against employees and former employees of public entities, respectively. See Ch. 59, Assemblies, Meetings, and Demonstrations, § 59.16[2][a]; Ch. 117A, Civil Rights: Interference With Civil Rights By Threats, Intimidation, Coercion, Or Violence, § 117A.11[1][f].

Rights of Prisoners. Ch. 114 has been updated to reflect the repeal of 15 Cal. Code Cal. Regs. § 3084, et seq., which covered the appeal rights of prisoners. 15 Cal. Code Cal. Regs. § 3084 now governs the grievance rights of prisoners with respect to sexual abuse and harassment. See Ch. 114, Civil Rights; Prisoners’ Rights, § 114.28[2].

CONTRACTS AND COMMERCIAL LAW

Advertising—Automatic Renewal Law. Bus. & Prof. Code 17602 has been amended to require that any business making an automatic renewal or continuous service offer to a consumer provide a notice containing specified disclosures, when the consumer accepts an offer with an initial term of one year or longer or accepts a free gift or trial lasting for more than 31 days [see Stats. 2021, ch. 450, § 2 (operative July 1, 2022)]. See Ch. 14, Advertising, § 14.13[20].

Long-Term Health Care Facilities—Civil Actions. Health & Safety Code § 1430 has been amended [see Stats. 2021, ch. 471, § 1] to provide that a care facility licensee will be liable for up to $500 for each violation of a resident's rights occurring on or after March 1, 2021, as well as costs and attorney's fees. See Ch. 351, Long-Term Health and Residential Care, § 351.21[4].

Song-Beverly Act—Service Contracts. Non-vehicle service contracts entered into as of 2022 may be offered on a month-to-month or other periodic basis and, if continuing until canceled, must contain certain required disclosures [see Civ. Code § 1794.4(c)(3),(g); Stats. 2021, ch. 452, § 2]. See Ch. 502, Sales: Warranties, § 502.45[2][b].

Usury—“Bonus” or Other Compensation. In Grados v. Shiao (2021) 63 Cal. App. 5th 1042, the court of appeal held that an “earn-out amount” of $100,000 on a loan of $100,000 fell under the category of a bonus or other compensation [see Cal. Const., art. XV, § 1], resulting in an interest rate 10 times above the maximum constitutional rate, rendering that portion of a default judgment void. See Ch. 568, Usury, §§ 568.30, 568.32[4].

CORPORATIONS

Corporate Records—

Shareholder Inspection. In Ramirez v. Gilead Sciences, Inc. (2021) 66 Cal. App. 5th 218, the court of appeal held that for purposes of the right to inspect corporate books and records pursuant to Corp. Code § 1601, a “shareholder” is a holder of record of shares [see Corp. Code § 185] and not a beneficial owner of shares. See Ch. 165, Corporations: Corporate Records and Reports, § 165.13[1].

Shareholder Meetings—Remote Participation.

Corp. Code § 600 has been amended to provide that shareholder meetings may be conducted by various remote communication methods if authorized by the board, but all shareholders must consent or an emergency must exist for a meeting to be conducted solely by remote communication [see Stats. 2021, ch. 523, § 3]. See Ch. 166, Corporations: Shareholders' Meetings and Voting, § 166.14.

Corporate Securities—

Exemption From Qualification. Corp. Code § 25102(r) has been added as a new exemption from securities qualification requirements [see Stats. 2021, ch. 617, § 1], applicable to offers or sales of a security by a corporation that is not a blind pool or investment company, that is not issuing fractional undivided interests in oil or gas or mineral rights, and that conducts the offer and sale in accordance with federal law and other requirements. See Ch. 515, Se- curities and Franchise Regulation, § 515.14[5][o].

Liability for Securities Law Violations—Relief Available. Corp. Code §§ 25501 and 25503 (material misrepresentation and regulatory violations) have been amended to provide that a court may award reasonable attorney's fees to a prevailing party in actions brought pursuant to those sections [see Stats. 2021, ch. 617, §§ 2, 3]. See Ch. 515, Securities and Franchise Regulation, §§ 515.19, 515.21.

COSTS AND ATTORNEY'S FEES

Pro Se Attorney May Recover Costs Only. In Leiper v. Gallegos (2021) 69 Cal. App. 5th 284, 293, 284 Cal. Rptr. 3d 349, the court of appeal held that a self-represented attorney may not recover attorney's fees under the common fund theory. See Ch. 174, Costs and Attorney's Fees, § 174.55[1].

DISCOVERY

Marital Privilege Applies Unless Spouses Are Formally Divorced. In People v. Barefield (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 890, 901, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 742, the court of appeal held that the marital privilege applies even when parties are legally separated. See Ch. 191, Discovery: Privileges and Other Discovery Limitations, § 191.80[3].

Work Product Protection Waived. In People v. Superior Court (2021) 2021 Cal. LEXIS 8428, **19–20, the California Supreme Court held that a prosecutor implicitly waived work product protection of his juror notes when he put his justification for peremptory challenges at issue. See Ch. Ch. 191, Discovery: Privileges and Other Discovery Limitations, § 191.103[3].

Deposition Officer Attendance By Remote Means. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 2025.310 is amended for January 1, 2022 to provide that at the election of the deponent or the deposing party, the deposition officer may attend the deposition at a different location than the deponent via remote means. A deponent is not required to be physically present with the deposition officer when being sworn in at the time of the deposition. See Ch. Ch. 191, Discovery: Privileges and Other Discovery Limitations, § 191.103[3].

Deposition—Deposition Officer Attendance By Remote Means. Cal. Code Civ. Proc. § 2025.310 is amended for January 1, 2022 to provide that at the election of the deponent or the deposing party, the deposition officer may attend the deposition at a different location than the deponent via remote means. A deponent is not required to be physically present with the deposition officer when being sworn in at the time of the deposition. See Ch. Ch. 193, Discovery: Depositions, § 193.22[3].

Deposition—Notice of Physical Presence at Deposition. Cal. Rules Ct, Rule 3.1010 is amended for January 1, 2022 to provide that any party or attorney of record may be physically present at the deposition at the location of the deponent with written notice of such appearance served by personal delivery, email, or fax, at least five court days before the deposition, and subject to Code Civ. Proc. § 2025.420. An attorney for the deponent may be physically present with the deponent without notice. See Ch. Ch. 191, Discovery: Depositions, § 193.22[3].

INJUNCTIONS AND PROVISIONAL REMEDIES

Mandatory Injunctions Stayed on Appeal. In Daly v. San Bernardino County Bd. of Supervisors (2021) 11 Cal. 5th 1030, 1039, 282 Cal. Rptr. 3d 282, 492 P.3d 921, the California Supreme Court discussed the difficulty in distinguishing between mandatory and prohibitory injunctions and whether they are automatically stayed on appeal. See Ch. 303, Injunctions, § 303.84.

INSURANCE

Life Insurance. In McHugh v. Protective Life Ins. (2021) 12 Cal. 5th 213, the California Supreme Court held that Ins. Code §§ 10113.71 and 10113.72, which provide certain protections, e.g., a grace period, that shield consumers from losing life-insurance coverage because of a missed premium payment, apply to all life-insurance policies in force when they went into effect (January 1, 2103), regardless of when the policies were originally issued. See Ch. 308, Insurance, § 308.46.

Business-Property Claims Based on Pandemic Restrictions. A federal and a state case have held that commercial first-party policies did not provide coverage for business losses based on the business owners' closing of their businesses pursuant to government directives during the COVID-19 pandemic (Mudpie, Inc. v. Travelers Cas. Ins. Co. of America (9th Cir. 2021) 15 F.4th 885; Inns-by-the-Sea v. California Mut. Ins. Co. (2021) 71 Cal. App. 5th 688). See Ch. 308, Insurance, § 308.251[6].

JUDGMENTS

Amendment Under Sister State Money-Judgment Act. In Blizzard Energy, Inc. v. Schaefers (2021) 2021 Cal. App. LEXIS 968, *12, the court of appeal held that the Sister State Money-Judgments Act does not preclude addition of nonparty alter ego as judgment debtor. See Ch. 318, Judgments, § 318.182[8].

Conservator's Misrepresentations Constituted Extrinsic Fraud. In Hudson v. Foster (2021) 68 Cal. App. 5th 640, 671, 283 Cal. Rptr. 3d 822, the court of appeal held that because a conservatee was entitled to rely on disclosures made by his conservator, the conservator's extrinsic fraud was sufficient to establish grounds for the conservatee's motion to vacate the final account. See Ch. 489, Relief from Judgments and Orders, § 489.243[2][e].

REAL PROPERTY

Restrictive Covenants. In 2021 Stats., Ch. 359, AB 1466, the Legislature expanded the process for filing Restrictive Covenant Modification forms and required the county recorder of each county to establish a restrictive covenant program to assist in the redaction of unlawfully restrictive covenants. See Ch. 184, Deeds, § 184.66[2][b].

Mobilehome Rent Control. In 2021 Stats., Ch. 125, AB 978, the Legislature enacted statewide mobilehome rent control for mobilehome parks in two counties. See Ch. 335, Landlord and Tenant: Rent Control, § 335.18[2].

Partition. California has adopted the Uniform Partition of Heirs Property Act [Code Civ. Proc. § 874.311 et seq.], which applies to partition actions filed on or after January 1, 2022. See Ch. 397, Partition, § 397.64.

Unlawful Detainer. The Judicial Council issued a revised form UD-105, Answer to Complaint for Unlawful Detainer by Lessee or Tenant, to include affirmative defenses related to participation in rental assistance programs. See Ch. 333, Landlord and Tenant: Eviction Actions, § 333.110.

Unlawful Detainer and Recovery of COVID-19 Rental Debt. The Judicial Council issued new mandatory forms UD-125, Application to Prevent Forfeiture Due to COVID-19 Rental Debt [Code Civ. Proc. § 1179.13(a)(3)]; PLD-C-500, Complaint—Recovery of COVID-19 Rental Debt; PLD-C-505, Answer—Recovery of COVID-19 Rental Debt; PLD-C-520, Verification by Plaintiff Regarding Rental Assistance—Recovery of COVID-19 Rental Debt; SC-500, Plaintiff's Claim and ORDER to Go to Small Claims Court (COVID-19 Rental Debt); and SC-500A, Other Plaintiffs or Defendants (COVID-19 Rental Debt). See Ch. 333, Landlord and Tenant: Eviction Actions, §§ 333.114–333.119.

TORTS

Rules for Holding Hirer Liable for Injury to Independent Contractor's Employee Clarified. In Sandoval v. Qualcomm Incorporated (2021) 12 Cal. 5th 256 and Gonzalez v. Mathis (2021) 12 Cal. 5th 29, the California Supreme Court clarified that when seeking to hold the hirer of an independent contractor liable for an injury to an employee of the independent contractor, the requisite “affirmative contribution” to the employee’s injury requires that the hirer exercised retained control over the contractor’s work in a manner that affirmatively contributed to the injury.

Archdiocese Owed Duty to Protect Child in 1988 From Sexual Abuse by Priest. In Doe v. Roman Catholic Archbishop of Los Angeles (2021) 70 Cal. App. 5th 657, the court of appeal held that a Catholic Archdiocese owed a duty of care to protect a minor who was enrolled in catechism class in 1988 at a parish school from sexual assault committed by a priest. See Ch. 380, Negligence, § 380.32[3][b][i].

Limitations Period for Sexual Assault Claims Against Police Officers Added. The Legislature added Gov. Code § 945.9 to provide a special 10-year statute of limitations for actions against law enforcement officers for sexual assault, which are not subject to state or local claims-filing requirements. See Ch. 464, Public Entities and Officers: California Government Claims Act, § 464.42[1][c].

Public Employee Malicious Prosecution Immunity Inapplicable to Civil Rights Claims. The Legislature amended Civ. Code § 52.1 to provide that the public employee malicious prosecution immunity of Gov. Code § 821.6 does not apply to a civil rights action brought under the Tom Bane Civil Rights Act. See Ch. 464, Public Entities and Officers: California Government Claims Act, § 464.64[7][b].

No Unfair Competition Recovery for Unearned Future Anticipated Income. In Lee v. Luxottica Retail North America, Inc. (2021) 65 Cal. App. 5th 793, the court of appeal held that regardless of whether the remedy sought is labeled as lost profits, lost market share, or lost business opportunity, a plaintiff in an unfair competition action cannot recover future anticipated, but unearned, income from a business competitor under the guise of restitution. See Ch. 565, Unfair Competition, § 565.34[2][a].

TRIAL

Trial Court Role in Determining Motion for New Trial. In Huy Fong Foods, Inc. v. Underwood Ranches, LP (2021) 66 Cal. App. 5th 1112, 1126, 281 Cal. Rptr. 3d 757, the court of appeal held that a trial court does not have the power to act as a “super juror” and substitute its personal opinion for that of the jurors. See Ch. 371, Motions After Trial, § 371.63[7].
